Intellectual Property Brokerage and Consulting Services

IPOfferings LLC helps inventors, businesses, universities and other owners of patents and other forms of intellectual property sell or license their IP. Working mainly on a contingency basis, IPOfferings both evaluates and values your patent or IP portfolio to determine its marketability. IPOfferings creates a marketing package that includes all the information a buyer needs to conduct the due diligence required to fully evaluate your intellectual property including evidence of use and potential licensing candidates. IPOfferings directly contacts prospective buyers and negotiates on behalf of the patent owner.
